FOUND DEAD

Silas Hawkins, Colored, Discovered Near Pogue Distillery Thursday Morning.

Thursday morning at 6 o'clock, Charles Nauman, an employee of the C. & O., who lives below this city, while on his way to work, made a gruesome find. When near the H. E. Pogue distillery Nauman discovered a colored man lying beside the railroad track and when he attempted to arouse him, it was found the colored man was dead. Coroner Charles Slack was notified and after a brief investigation the dead man's name was found to be Silas Hawkins of the Fifth ward. By the dead man's side was a quart of whisky. A watch and other valuables were found in the pockets. The cause of the death is not known, but it is conjectured he died from effects of the cold. The remains were removed to the morgue.

BIG RIVER

It Is Now Expected That the Ohio
At This Point Will Pass the Danger Line of Fifty Feet.

For the third time within thirty days the Ohio river is almost bank full and rising at a rate that will insure the passing of the danger line at this point by Friday night.
Owing to the excessive precipitation the last forty-eight hours, all the up-river streams are pouring out big, and as the rainfall has been over the entire water-shed of the Ohio, it is reasonably fair to presume that the fifty-foot mark will be passed at this point.

To those who reside and have business within the danger zone, it is best for them to move up higher, and thus prevent a loss. Even if the water does not reach them it is far better to be on the safe side.

The long expected cold wave arrived Thursday night, which will have a tendency to check the rising waters and prevent a disaster, such as occurred in 1913.

Residents along Front street between Market and Limestone have moved up a story, while a number in other low places are preparing either to move up or out, and aside from the inconvenience of moving, will save themselves a distinct loss.

The gauge at 5 o'clock stood at 45 feet and rising.

Huntington and Parkersburg, W. Va., reported at midnight Wednesday the rainfall was 2.6 inches, the heaviest since the 1913 flood.

Pittsburg, Pa., January 12 (Midnight)—With the Monongahela river on a rampage, a stage of more than eighteen feet is expected at the Point bridge tomorrow morning. Tonight the Ohio river at Davis Island dam was rising at the rate of 3 of a foot an hour. From Pittsburg on down the Ohio is rising about two inches an hour.

SALE POSTPONED.

The sale which was to have been held today by Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Cole at their home near Murphysville, has been postponed until Saturday, January 22, on account of the high stage of the North Fork, which has covered the road.

ed carrier on Route No. 4 out of Flem-

JUDGE COCHRAN UPHOLD

Federal Supreme Court Dismissed the Appeal of the Home Bonding Company Against H. V.
McChesney.

The Supreme Court of the United States dismissed the appeal of the Home Bond Company of Indianapolis against H. V. McChesney, trustee in bankruptcy for the American Fibre Reed Company and the New England Chair Company, both of Frankfort, Ky.

The court affirmed the judgments of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, Judge A. M. J. Cochran, of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Kentucky; D. W. Lindsay of Frankfort, special master in bankruptcy, and Trustee McChesney.

The case grew out of a contract made between the bonding company and the reed and chair companies over accounts of the latter held as surety for loans. The bonding company sought to obtain $2,845.88 from the chair company and $2,409.25 from the reed company, but Mr. McChesney held it had only a lien on the accounts and was entitled to $576.10.

The Supreme Court of the United States affirmed this ruling with costs. The case was taken up on appeal at the October, 1913, term of the court.

PUBLIC MANNERS AND ELDERLY PEOPLE.

An elderly man who walks quite feebly, using a cane a good deal of the time, complained to the writer the other day of the heedlessness of the public school children.

"I was going along the street," he said, "when a bunch of them came along four abreast. I was feeling pretty weak and dizzy, but they just forced me off into the gutter, and one of them switched his arms so that they knocked my cane out of my hand. Never stopped to pick it up or to say 'Excuse me,' either."

It was not long ago that an aged lady also spoke of the way she felt she had made herself ridiculous in crossing a street.

"I suppose I did get flustered," she admitted, "and probably I made a fool of myself. I just couldn't help it. But I couldn't look all around at once, and when I first saw the automobile it was within about five feet of me. I know I ought to have gone right ahead, but instead of that I lost my wits and drew back, and the machine had to stop sharp, and let me get out of the way. Then I could hear them laughing at me."

Incidents like these must occur to the minds of most people. As far as the children are concerned, the teachers can do something. It is a damage to a boy or a girl to grow up without a sense of reverence for older people. The oldest can get along without the young people's respect, but the youngsters will suffer a loss if they do not cultivate the friendship of older persons.

Unfortunately this lack of consideration for the older people is not confined to the little ones. There are a great many grownups to whom gray hairs mean nothing. The world is a race in which the devil takes the hindmost. If you are handicapped by your failing muscles, that is your misfortune, not my fault.

The true gentleman or lady scarcely ever insists on the full measure of his rights. He would rather lose the best seat in the car or the first place at the ticket window, if he must nudge and elbow and jostle to get it.

Leslie Combs, Progressive National Committeeman, is in Chicago today to meet George W. Perkins and to attend the meeting of the Progressive National Committee tomorrow. Before leaving Mr. Combs stated that he did not believe the Progressives would request the nomination of Theodore Roosevelt for President as a part of the get-together program with the Republicans, but he believed the two parties would reunite on an acceptable basis and that a nominee attractive even to thousands of Democrats would be selected at the Chicago convention in June.—Lexington Leader.

The administration "was at the high tide of popularity" six months ago; "since then there has been a steady ebb," says the New York Globe. There may be some disagreement over the dates, but there is none as to the facts.

It is remarked that the high cost of living agitated the ancients, but they could always be quieted down by getting up a costly foreign war.

Many cities are adopting battle cries as business "boosters." For some of our neighbors "bottle cries" would be more popular.

When the compositors don't have much to do, it is always a good plan to put the obituaries of some more aviators into type.

CHICAGO, U. S. A.

January 5, 1916.

Mr. C. F. McNamara,
Maysville, Ky.

Dear Sir:

Following the custom pursued by us for many years, we wish our old customers, as well as our new, to return any coat made by us during the past season in which the lining has not given satisfactory wear or the fronts have not held their shape. We will be pleased to re-line the garment and put in new front, or if this cannot be done, make a new coat free of charge.

Very truly yours,
ED. V. PRICE & COMPANY.

ITEMS FROM ALL AROUND

Seven-foot Snake.

(Marion Falcon.)
Whitley High Stine, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Stine of Gravel Switch, was out baiting his traps one day last week he found an immense cow snake coiled in the end of a hollow log. He dragged the snake out and killed it. The snake measured full seven feet long.

Flue Work.

(Manchester Democrat.)
Beautiful specimens of heraldic work done by Lucien Beckner have been admired by all who have seen them. There is not in the state of Kentucky one whose mind is such a storehouse of historic information, and he has been generously engaged by many persons. This heraldic work is pleasantly linked with this pursuit.

Turkeys Still Trotting.

(Falmouth Outlook.)
Mrs. V. E. Britton of Butler, R. D. No. 1, has surely raised the heavy-weight turkeys in this section, if not in the state. She sold twenty-two birds that averaged sixteen and one-third pounds and brought her an average of $3.03 a head. These are turkey-trotters with ball-bearing joints, and are throwing dust in the eyes of all other turkey raisers that have been reported to the press of the state. If anybody can beat this record let us hear from them.

Good Averages.

(Falmouth Outlook.)
G. W. Harker, near Dossesville, was in town Tuesday and coughed up a wagon wheel for a year's subscription with the best of graces. He was feeling good over the fact that he had just sold his crop of tobacco on the loose leaf market at the Falmouth house for $12.60 per hundred pounds. C. A. Daugherty and D. M. Daugherty were trailing a little in the rear, with averages of 10% and 9% cents. They, too, were wearing one of those smiles that won't come off.

Married 61 Years Ago.

(Carrollton Democrat.)
James H. Spier of Whites Run was in Thursday to renew his subscription to the Democrat. He has been a subscriber for forty-seven years. He was married sixty-one years ago. Both he and his wife are still in good health. His family have all made good men and women. He has been blessed in many ways and may he and his good wife see the return of many more happy New Year's.

Big Corn Shipments.

(Henderson Gleaner.)
There are between 17,000 and 20,000 bushels of corn at the I. & N. wharfboat waiting to be delivered to the local elevators and approximately 14,000 bushels more due to arrive from down river points today.

Most all of this corn was received from down the river, some coming from Tulsa and other small towns below Mt. Vernon and Uniontown. Eight thousand bushels of the corn are stored in the wharf and the remainder is on three barges anchored to the wharf.

Prized Gift.

(Falmouth Pendletonian.)
Mrs. Charles Ewing of Hightower, has one gift, among the season's presentations, that is especially prized, and which will be a treasure to her throughout the future years of her life. It is a quilt made for her by her 94-year-old grandmother, Mrs. Stanley. The aged lady, so remarkably well preserved at this advanced age, now lives in Missouri, but her former home was in Pendleton county. Her daughter, Mrs. Minerva Baskett, resides at Boyd, and the latter's son, Jesse Baskett, is connected with the tobacco warehouse industry of Falmouth. The hosts of friends and relatives throughout Pendleton and Harrison counties will be glad to have this bit of cheerful news that Mrs. Stanley, at the age of 94 years, is still able to find peaceful employment in life.

Steel Removed From Eye.

(Madisonville Hustler.)
Andrew Crenshaw, it will be remembered, suffered an injury to his eye some two years or more ago, due to a piece or pieces of steel wedge flying off and into his eye. Since that time his eye has never gotten entirely well, and has given him more or less pain and trouble all the time since. So a few days ago he discovered that some foreign particle was making or about to make its appearance, so he came here for examination and a local physician, Dr. M. Brown, found and removed a piece of steel from Mr. Crenshaw's eye almost as large as a small grain of wheat. The piece of steel was slightly rusted and the wonder is that it did not give Mr. Crenshaw more trouble than it did. Mr. Crenshaw thinks now his eye feels better than it did since first it got hurt.

January 13.

Colonel Sir Neville Chamberlain, member of the central board of control, to curb the drinking of liquor in the munitions and camp areas of the British army, is 60 years old today. He has been a soldier and diplomat all his life, and did notable work as private secretary to Lord Roberts during the South African war. Sir Neville was inspector general of the Royal Irish Constabulary when the war broke out. His nineteen years with Lord Roberts had trained him to handle large plans and when the British government decided to curb the use of liquor during the war, he was chosen, with large employers of labor, social workers, scientists and labor leaders to carry out the work. Sir Neville was born on January 13, 1856, the son of a lieutenant in the Indian army. He entered the army at 17 and served as interpreter, staff officer and organizer of territorial troops under Lord Roberts for twenty-seven years.

POINTED POINTS.

Lady Eglington, the $100,000 hen, would be worth just $1.50 for a chicken stew.

This being a presidential year, the pivotal states are preparing to pivot as soon as the orchestra strikes up.

On one kind of preparedness all neutral countries are united, and that is preparedness to welcome the end of the war.

Some day, perhaps, when the Culbra cut stops sliding, it may be possible to figure out the total cost of the Panama canal.

Money itself doesn't make a fool of a man, but it sometimes affords him the means and opportunity of making a fool of himself.

It hasn't escaped notice that the New Year has advanced as far in places where it wasn't welcomed with a flood of champagne as it has in some of the big cities.

The sardine packing business is reported to have been an almost complete failure in Norway, but in the New York subway it is being conducted as actively as ever.

A New York girl complains because a man addressed a business letter to her in the words "Dear Miss." But how can one call these chiffling fur-trimmed kittens, "Madam?"

The man who says a workman could support a family comfortably on $12 per week never figured on the fact that a woman can't go down to buy a 2-cent yeast cake without putting on a $12 hat.

It may have been merely a coincidence, but the announcement that a collection of many thousands of bottles had been placed in the Smithsonian Institution in Washington came simultaneously with the entrance of seven new states into the prohibition column.

Many farmers have begun to see the light at "THE LIBERTY WAREHOUSE," of Maysville, Ky., which is not in the "COMBINE," and has the largest sales floor in Maysville and second largest in the county. The managers of THE LIBERTY WAREHOUSE promise the farmers nothing more than the best they can do as tobacco warehouse men. We do not claim that which is not ours by right, and have no time to knock other markets, as we are too busy boosting our own sales and the result is that new faces are seen on our sales floor each day and those faces are wearing a smile when their owners leave town.

Mr. A. M. Perry is our auctioneer and the man who helps you get the high dollar.

A MERCILESS JUDGE

One Who Shows No Favor.

A merciless judge is Father Time. Before him the weak and wanting go to the wall. Only the truth can stand. For years the following statement from a Maysville resident has stood this sternest of all tests.

Frederick Dreesel, tailor, 1238 E. Second St., Maysville, says: "I was troubled with inflammation of the bladder and an annoyance from my kidneys. The passages of the kidney secretions were irregular and I had a severe pain across the small of my back which interfered with my duties. When a friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, I got a box at Wood & Son's Drug Store. They gave me prompt relief."

OVER THREE YEARS LATER Mr. Dreesel said: "Since I used Doan's Kidney Pills, I have not had any kidney trouble nor have I had to take a kidney medicine in that time."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy---get Doan's Kidney Pills---the same that Mr. Dreesel has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

SKATING FAD

Takes New York and Eastern Cities By Storm---Endorsed As Means of Outdoor Exercise.

New York, January 11.--Society's pet craze this winter is skating. Last season a good many dancing floors began to be converted into roller rinks. This year in many northern cities, ice skating is drawing the crowds that but recently paid down so much good money to learn the transient art of tangoing.

It is somewhat difficult for the philosophical observer to account for the fascination found in making some hundreds of rounds about the narrow hall containing a roller or ice rink. Probably a mere barbaric physical longing for speed is a large share of it. You find that trail in all cold countries, where boys from time immemorial have risked their necks on sleds, double rippers, toboggans and skis.

The scorching motorist is a universal illustration of this love for swift first prize. The guests of honor were the scenery. The human types that he meets do not interest him, only the story of his speedometer and the condition of the roads. Perhaps the skater has a related feeling. No doubt skates of any kind do give a sense of obstacles removed, of weight of body released of easy motion, that produces physical elation.

Many athletic young people devote time and effort to the elaboration of all kinds of skillful stunts on skates, which must give the pleasure that goes with any form of bodily skill. Their feats of balance on their slippery and uncertain footing of either rollers or ice, are as marvelous as the acts of any tight rope walker. The freedom of the motion makes possible the most flowing grace.

Whether the skating craze can last as long as the dancing fad did is a question. It will always appeal to sentimental young folks anxious for an excuse for each other's society. It must be less responsive than dancing to the seductions of rhythmic motion and musical feeling. In the ice skating districts there are rare times when lawyers, doctors, ministers and business men acquire the fad. But in the long run it is a kid sport, the joys of which, in the boy mind, seem to be enhanced by the possibilities of a cold wetting.

STOOD UP IN MOVIE SHOW.

Washington, D. C.--Because they insisted on standing up while the "Star Spangled Banner" was being played, and refused to sit down when ordered to do so by persons in the rear, two privates of the United States Marine Corps, in full uniform, were forcibly ejected from a local motion picture theater.

A recent ruling by a justice of the District Supreme Court gives the management of a theater the right to eject patrons under similar circumstances, and no official protest by the Marine Corps authorities will result.

JUSTICE HUGHES TO SPEAK TO-MORROW.

New York, January 13.--Justice Charles E. Hughes of the United States Supreme Court, who has been in the limelight for several months through his refusal to be considered as a candidate for the Republican nomination for the Presidency, will address the New York Bar Association at its annual meeting tomorrow. Political leaders will take earnest notice of what he has to say.

The bureau of standards has developed a test for platinum.

SPLENDID COMPANY

To Support Jefferson De Angellis In "Some Baby" At the Washington Theater Monday Night.

A splendid company of fun-makers will be seen at the Washington Theater Monday night in the new three-act farce, "Some Baby," that will be presented by the Estate of Henry D. Harris.

Jefferson De Angellis, who was last seen in "The Harvard Romeo," has been identified with many big laughing successes and in this new farce, in the role of a delightful old professor who has good reason to believe that he has discovered the real elixir of youth, he promises to make a new record for mirth.

Can you imagine what compliments could happen in the house of an old scientist who believes he has discovered the elixir of youth? When he sees a grown dog turn into a tiny pup and his daughter and 65-year-old friend apparently transformed into month-old children,--think of the condition of his mind and exultation of his success turned into one of terror when the truth finally dawns on the old man, of what the consequence might be. Of course, miracles of this kind do not happen, but the supposition is enough to furnish the material for the most amusing comedy in years.

"Some Baby" is from the pens of Zillah Covington and Jules Simonson and was revised and staged by Percival Knight.

"Coffee Don't Hurt Me"

Can he get away with it?

The drug, caffeine, in coffee, about 2 1/2 grains to the average cup, hurts many coffee drinkers, at some time of life, and often hurts them hard.

Caffeine is a powerful irritant that unsteadies the nerves, races the heart, disorganizes the digestive organs and plays havoc with the health of a large proportion of coffee users.

Of course, there are some who go on drinking coffee for years, without apparent harm, at least they don't suspect it, until the cumulative drug, caffeine, has got in its work. Isn't it the best plan to play safe with health---quit coffee and use

INSTANT POSTUM

Postum comes in two forms: the original Postum Cereal, must be well-boiled, 15c and 25c packages; Instant Postum, the soluble form, can be made in the cup, at table, by adding hot water, 30c and 50c tins. Both kinds are equally delicious and the cost per cup is about the same.

The better health that follows quitting coffee has shown thousands

1,000 PINTS

Of Liquor Confiscated In Huntington Since the Railroad Eject Has Been Enforced.

Since the edict of the C. & O. refusing to take labeled liquor as personal baggage about Christmas, one thousand pints have been seized in Huntington and practically all of it destroyed. Several of the cases resulting in seizure of liquor are still pending. On the Charleston scale of prices this liquor is worth $2,500.
Pint prices increased to $2.50 in Charleston for first class "bootleg."
The activities of the prohibition department are responsible for the increased quotation. Prices were first quoted at $1 per pint. Huntington, it is said, is still paying $1 per pint for "bootleg."

LARGE NUMBER OF MOUNTAIN PEOPLE

Pass Through Winchester For Middletown, O., To Work In Factories.

(Winchester Sun.)
There has been a steady stream of mountain people passing through Winchester during the last few days and in practically every case they are journeying to Middletown, O. They come from all sections of the mountains, reaching Winchester, the nearest junction point over the Lexington & Eastern, where they purchase tickets to their destination. More than one hundred tickets have been sold at the local ticket office of the L. & N. in the last two weeks, and it is said the general exodus from the mountains is not over.
The people who migrate to the Ohio town go there to work in the factories during the winter. Work is plentiful for them there and they journey to Middletown at the first signs of winter. With the coming of spring they will retrace their steps and return to the mountains, where they raise their crops and remain there until winter sets in again. Whole families have been moving through Winchester during the last few days, and the depot has been crowded with the migrants.

SHALL WE?
I am not in the argument that is sure to follow this article and statement. I am asking this as a public question to be answered publicly through the columns of this or any other local paper. Just consider me an entire stranger with no interest in any way, shape or form.
There is a well founded rumor the local picture shows will be open to the public Sunday afternoon from 1 until 5 o'clock. I know that they have been solicited to do so. There is no town ordinance against it, and it is claimed that, if some of our young people, in fact people of all ages, had some place of amusement Sunday afternoon there would be less dice shooting, poker playing, drinking bouts and other vices too numerous to mention.
All these things do take place and we know it.
A clean, state-censored picture show is no evil. In fact, it is educational.
What I want to know is: What do you believe? Will it cause our church worship to be neglected? Will it or will it not be in direct opposition to the church, and if so, in what way?
Suppose a part of the show receipts were set apart to be given to our City Mission, Health League and Hospital.
Would that make it right? No question but what we could make splendid use of any little spare change passed our way for the aforesaid charities.
It's up to the people. They and they alone shall say.
We are waiting for our questions to be answered. Register all howls of protest, give and take advice, etc., etc.
And remember, I am not interested in this one "litney." I am a Christian, church-goer and picture show lover.
Just asking a plain question, shall we?
X Y Z.
